

Patron Behavior Consequences

Failure to follow the Library patron behavior policy may result in temporary banning from Internet use or expulsion from the library. Persons who repeatedly or egregiously violate Library policy may be served with a trespass order requiring that they not be on Library property for up to 12 months. Library staff has the final authority in determining what constitutes disruptive behavior.

Generally, a patron may receive a verbal warning regarding a violation of the guidelines. Behavior resulting in a second warning will warrant expulsion from the library (includes library building, park, plaza and parking lots) and/or computers for the remainder of the day. Continued violation of this policy will result in expulsion from the library/computers for a week. Additional warnings can result in expulsion from the library/computers for a period of time ranging from one month to one year. However, library staff members may ask a patron to leave the premises without prior warning, depending on the seriousness of the violation.

When possible, any patron who has been banned from the library/computers for more than a day will be provided with written notification indicating the reason for the ban, the time period of the ban and the appeals process. Any person who enters the library while banned from the premises will be considered in violation of library policy and the police may be contacted.

Patron Appeal:

An Internet user whose session has been terminated or whose Internet access has been prohibited due to violations of the Library Internet Use policy, a library patron who has been asked to leave the library for a length of time due to violations of the patron behavior policy, or a library patron who feels that a Library policy or Library staff action has impacted their ability to access Library services may submit a Patron Appeal Form to the Library Director.

PROCESS:

1. The Library Director will review the Patron Appeal Form and provide a written response within 14 days.
 2. If the patron is unsatisfied with the Library Director's response, they may submit a written request to appeal to the Great Falls Public Library Board.
 3. The patron appeal will be placed on the agenda of the next scheduled board meeting. After hearing statements from the patron, Library staff and any public wishing to speak, the Board will make final ruling on the appeal. A written response will be sent to the patron within 14 days
