

Exhibit Space

The library provides exhibition space, to be determined by library staff, for individuals and non-profit groups in order for them to promote their art, activities, history, cultural heritage and/or current projects. The space may not be used for exhibits that are commercial in nature, promote a specific religious concept, espouse partisan politics or demean groups or individuals.

The first floor of the library is generally reserved for exhibitions of an artistic nature, or those sponsored or co-sponsored by the Great Falls Public Library. Other types of displays are generally located on the second floor. The library reserves the right to place limits on location, duration and size of exhibits. Exhibitions do not imply endorsement by the library.

Exhibited items may not be labeled with prices. If the items are for sale, the exhibitor may provide a price list complete with contact information, copies of which will be given out at the front desk upon request. The library will not handle any sales transactions.

The Great Falls Library Board of Trustees or the Director reserve the right to approve or disapprove any proposed exhibit and its location.
