

Community Exhibits & Displays

Community Art Exhibits:

The library provides art exhibition space for individuals and non-profit groups in order for them to promote their art, activities, history, cultural heritage and/or current projects. The space may not be used for exhibits that are commercial in nature, promote a specific religious concept, espouse partisan politics or demean groups or individuals. Space for each exhibit will be determined by library staff. The library reserves the right to place limits on location, duration and size of exhibits. Exhibitions do not imply endorsement by the library.

Exhibited items may not be labeled with prices. If the items are for sale, the exhibitor may provide a price list complete with contact information, copies of which will be given out at the front desk upon request. The library will not handle any sales transactions.

All groups, organizations or individuals exhibiting art at the Great Falls Public Library must have a signed Art Exhibit Contract and adhere to Library exhibit procedures.

The Great Falls Library Board of Trustees or the Director reserve the right to approve or disapprove any proposed exhibit and its location.

Community Exhibits:

As part of our mission to empower the community and enhance the quality of life by providing individuals access to information and resources, the Great Falls Public Library provides the community with limited, temporary space for exhibits.. The Library welcomes community groups, organizations and individuals to use the various display areas. Space is provided for items of an educational, cultural, civic, or recreational nature. The space may not be used for exhibits that are commercial in nature, promote a specific religious concept, espouse partisan politics or demean groups or individuals.

Applications for exhibits will be granted on a first-come, first-serve basis. The library shall have the final decision on the content and arrangement of all exhibits. Space for each exhibit will be determined by library staff. The library reserves the right to place limits on location, duration and size of exhibits.

It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to set up, maintain and remove the exhibit. Exhibits will normally be scheduled for a period of one calendar month. Exceptions must be approved by the library director.

The library assumes no responsibility for either damage to or the preservation, protection, or theft of any item displayed or exhibited. All items placed in the library are done at the owner's risk.

Exhibits do not imply endorsement by the library.

The Great Falls Library Board of Trustees or the Director reserve the right to approve or disapprove any proposed exhibit and its location.
